

Homeless students in our community need more than just a good base education to achieve academic success.

They need educational equity, in the form of individualized support and resources along with a solid base education to succeed.

Project Infinity's Pilot Program will provide the support and resources to ensure Educational Equity.